

LABRÉ ADVOCATEN BOOSTS ITS TEAM

Labré Advocaten (Amsterdam) is growing and excited to introduce new Dutch qualified colleagues.

CORPORATE, COMMERCIAL AND INSOLVENCY

One of the firm's founders, John van Loo, will be leaving the company at the end of 2017 to continue his private practise outside Labré. Labré Advocaten thanks John for all his efforts, especially in helping to grow the Warwick Legal Network and the firm's active role within WLN. John will continue to be involved in the Network as a (joint) Managing Director and as such will not be out of sight.

Sjef Bartels and Carry Dullaart will be leading the corporate and insolvency team going forward. They have recently been joined by Mayk Koria in their team, which also includes Elise Reisenstadt-Schots. Mayk has been working as a lawyer for more than three years and has gained broad experience in a general commercial practice. Within the team Mayk will focus on insolvency and restructuring. With the addition of Mayk, the team now consists of:

Sjef Bartels

Carry Dullaart

Mayk Koria

Elise Reisenstadt-Schots

REAL ESTATE

The real estate team, headed by Ramon Ridder and Tim Boer has welcomed Stephan Kloosterman as a new colleague. Stephan is an experienced lawyer who has chosen Labré because of its particular expertise in real estate. The real estate team also includes Douwe op de Hoek, Stefan Pentinga and José Veldman (support lawyer), forming a robust team of 6 specialists.

Stephan Kloosterman

Together with their colleagues of the Employment team, Labré Advocaten now consists of 14 lawyers.
